

From LATimes.com:

THE NATION; 2005 SAT Math Score Sets Record; Results for the college entrance exam taken by last year's high school seniors nationwide showed no progress on the verbal section.; [HOME EDITION]

Jean Merl. Los Angeles Times Los Angeles, Calif.: Aug 31, 2005. pg. A.13

Subjects: Mathematics, Secondary school students, SAT assessment

Locations: United States, US, California

Document types: News

Section: Main News; Part A; Metro Desk

Abstract (Document Summary)

The nation's high school class of 2005 posted a record-high score on the math portion of the SAT, but displayed a lack of progress on the verbal part of the widely used college-entrance examination, test officials said Tuesday.

In California, half of 2005's graduates took the SAT. Their 504 verbal score somewhat lagged behind the nation's score, but their 522 in math slightly outshone seniors ...